

Freedom comes at a price, we can all agree. However, you can't ensure our Freedom by taking pieces away and trampling on the rest.

Governing is for the people by the people. Please remember that the definition of people is the public at large (even humanity). For the sake of ourselves, our children, and their children, do NOT decrease our rights and privacy any further. We already have enough to undo as it is.

Big Brother was never just in the imagination of Orwell.
